DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-12 are allowed.
2. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:
 - a. In light of the amendment to independent claims 1 and 6, Higashi et al. (EP 1 096 314 A1) no longer anticipates the presently claimed light sensitive composition and planographic printing plate because there is no teaching of a polymeric binder with an acid value in the range of 10 to 150 as specifically required in the present application. Nor is the presently claimed invention obvious over Higashi et al. in light of the 1.132 Declaration evidence showing the criticality of the claimed acid value range.

Conclusion
